

"Transformers Prime," an animated series with CG by Polygon Pictures, has been awarded the prize for Outstanding Special Class Animated Program at the 39th Annual Daytime Emmy Awards

Polygon Pictures ("PPI," President and CEO: Shuzo Shiota, Head Office: Minato-ku, Tokyo) is proud to announce that "Transformers Prime," a TV series in full 3D CG with animation produced by PPI, has been awarded the prize for Outstanding Special Class Animated Program at the 39th Annual Daytime Emmy Awards.

Since its debut, "Transformers Prime" has received critical acclaim both at home and around the world. The series received nominations in five categories for the prestigious awards this year, among those ultimately receiving the honors for Outstanding Special Class Animated Program.

In keeping with our stated mission to "do what no other has done, in unparalleled quality, for all the world to see and enjoy," PPI will continue striving to launch Japan's renowned animation business on a global scale.

About the Daytime Emmy Awards

The Emmy Awards are presented annually by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences. Designed to recognize outstanding achievement in television, the award constitutes one of the industry's highest honors. Emmys are distributed in a variety of categories, including special Daytime Emmy awards for programs that are broadcast outside of the evening primetime hours.
