Polygon Pictures ("PPI," President and CEO: Shuzo Shiota, Head Office: Tokyo, Japan) is proud to announce that the television series Star Wars: The Clone Wars and Transformers Prime Beast Hunters, both with CG animation produced by our studio, have received a total of 4 awards at the 41st Annual Daytime Emmy Awards, including Outstanding Special Class Animated Program.

Known as the "Academy Awards" of television, the Emmys are recognized as one of the most prestigious honors in the industry. One of the major categories awarded at the Daytime Emmys is the prize for Outstanding Special Class Animated Program. After also winning in this category last year, the honors this year once again go to Star Wars: The Clone Wars.

With Transformers Prime's win in the 39th Daytime Emmys, this marks the third year in a row in which a series with animation by our studio has received the award in this category.

Details about the individual awards are listed below.

About Polygon Pictures

Polygon Pictures comprises one of the companies under the umbrella of Amana Holdings Inc. (President and Representative Director: Hironobu Shindo, Head Office: Tokyo, Japan, Securities Code: TSE Mothers 2402). Our main business focus is on providing creative, entertaining visual content services. Last year, we celebrated the 30th anniversary of our founding.

Since its founding in July 1983, PPI's mission has been to "do what no other has done, in unparalleled quality, for all the world to see and enjoy." Including our joint-venture studio Silver Ant PPI Sdn. Bhd., we have brought together over 400 creators from around the world who devote their days to producing cutting-edge digital content. In addition to creating digital animation for films, games, exhibitions and various other media, we have also been involved in the production of TV series Transformers Prime, Star Wars: The Clone Wars (both Daytime Emmy award winners), and Tron: Uprising (Annie award winner). In 2014, with Knights of Sidonia (Director: Shizuno Kobun) and Ronia the Robber's Daughter (Director: Goro Miyazaki) our production of domestic TV animation has begun in earnest as well.

By fusing our unrivalled production know-how and technical development capacity with the internationally recognized quality of Japanese animation, PPI aims to become a leading company in the content business. For more information, visit our website at <http://www.ppi.co.jp>.
